'How Your Area Works' is a short programme aimed at helping local people be 'in the know' about:

- Local decisions....who makes them and how they are made
- How to shape decisions that affect the future of Communities in Batemoor and Jordanthorpe
- Opportunities created by the new Community Assemblies
- How groups in the area will work with the Assembly
- Who is working for change in your local area

The programme arranged over 4 x half days with lunch, also provides the chance to hear from guest speakers who will explain how different services are planned and delivered and how you can influence them.
